

Appendix 90 to
THE HISTORY OF SCOUTING IN SOUTH GEORGIA

Appendix Updated on: October 12, 2018)

Silver Beaver Awards
From 1944 to 1969

Prior to 1951 all awards, including the Silver Beaver awards, were presented at the December business meeting.

(Eagle Class Photos are in Appendix 53)

AWARDED SILVER BEAVER: W. R. Turner (left), president of the Chehaw Boy Scout Council, of Cordele, congratulates Charles S. Hogg, Jr., American Scouter, after presenting him with the Silver Beaver, Boy Scout award. This is the highest award that can be made to a Scouter, and the presentation was made at the annual council dinner. The honor came as a complete surprise to Mr. Hogg, outstanding young American businessman. The announcement was kept secret until the banquet last night. (Herald Staff Photo.)

Banquet held on January 25, 1944 at Radium Springs near Albany.
