

Appendix 84 to
THE HISTORY OF CHEHAW COUNCIL
Patch from Camp Shehaw (aka Camp Little Chehaw)

Most likely the 1942 Camp Shehaw camp patch. Camp Shehaw was the official summer camp for Chehaw Council in 1942. There is no mention of a patch in the brief newspaper reports of the camp. But, since patches had been used for earlier Chehaw Council summer camps, there most likely was a patch. The patch appears to have an "S" above the "1942" which could indicate that the patch was the same design as used for Honor Camper patch at Camp Chehaw in 1940 (and possibly 1941) but was being differentiated for the change in camp.
